Welsh Phrase of the Week

Our Crew Cymraeg have been working on this phrase this week; 'Mae'n ddrwg da fi', which translates as 'I am sorry'. Have a go at home this weekend.

Sports News

Well done to the boys and girls who competed in the netball tournament at Gwernyfed High School on Wednesday. The girls won every game and have qualified for the South Powys Finals! Thank you to Kate, Sarah, Meg and Harley from Glyndwr Netball club who came in for a coaching session with our Year 6 boys and girls.

World Book Day/St David's Day

On the first day back after half-term, all of KS2 are going to the Clarence Hall in the morning to see the author Andy Griffiths. We need parents and grandparents to help us walk down, we will leave at 9.15am. For world book day on the 7th March, the children can come dressed as their favourite book character and bring in their favourite book. We also hope to open our library and let classes chose a book to take home. For St David's day, the children can wear either a traditional Welsh costume or a Welsh rugby or football shirt (hopefully to celebrate our victory over England!) We have a packed day of competitions and will finish with a male voice choir to help us with our national anthem!

Assembly Award Winners

Well done to all our assembly award winners this week.
